Postoffice to Be Moved To Masonic Building If Department Approves

Present site in Grice Building Too Small Inspector Decides

The Antioch postoffice will be moved to the Masonic building room on Main st., recently vacated by the township library if the postoffice department approves the decision of the inspector who visited Antioch last week. Postmaster Roy Kufalk announced.

October 1 will be moving day if the plan is approved.

The postoffice has outgrown its present quarters in the Grice building which is the main reason for moving. While the Masonic building provides half again as much space, the rear is not so conducive for loading and unloading of mail for the rural carriers for there is a 10-foot drop.

"We will have to build a chute to drop the mail into the cars of the rural carriers," said Kufalk.

The change calls for a 10 year lease if approved. The building was the only one available in a central location.

The postoffice growing with the village itself has been so crowded at times that during the holiday season the Antioch garage building was used to receive parcel post packages.

Antioch Firemen Hear Talk by Chicago Chief; Attend Navy Fire Class

Robert Quinn, chief of the second battalion of the Chicago fire department addressed members of the Antioch fire department at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Chief Quinn was a lieutenant commander in the navy's fire fighting force during the last world war. He used his experience in the navy as the background for his discussion on modern fire fighting.

Chief Edgar Simonsen of the Antioch squad, President James McMillen, Capt. Murrill Cunningham, Lt. L. R. Van Patten, Jr., and firemen Charles Mapleshorpe and Irving Walsh attended the fire school at Great Lakes last Thursday, receiving their diploma in the course with honors.

The department in its meeting Tuesday evening laid the groundwork for the annual dance. The date has not yet been set.

Antioch and Lake Villa Share in State School General, Orphans Funds

Antioch and Lake Villa townships shared in state educational money totaling $213,668.20 received by Lake county.

This amount is only 92.39 percent of the total claims filed by the school districts. County Superintendent W. C. Petty said, because of a shortage of funds.

The two townships will also share in orphan claims totaling $31,192.99 owing to the children's homes in these localities. The Baptist home at Lake Villa accounts for some of this money.

Maypole Protests Attempt To Bar Him from Ticket As Independent Candidate

George M. Maypole of Lake Villa who withdrew as a candidate on the Democratic ticket to run for the state legislature as representative of the eighth senatorial district as an independent, recently wrote Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson protesting any move to bar him from running.

Maypole says he will have 6,000 signatures from residents of Lake, McHenry and Boone counties on his petition.

The letter to Governor Stevenson said:

Dear Sir:

As you undoubtedly know, I am circulating my petition for the Legislature as an independent candidate for the November election.

In this connection, I have been told, the canvassing board at the behest of the state organization would rule me off the ballot, if possible. I paid no attention to such rumors believing in your fairness and the fact that you would not want to be a party to what would amount to a disfranchisement of your own neighbors in Lake county.

Last Sunday, August 6, at a public gathering in the district, I was told by a Republican legislator (name on request) that someone in your office purporting to speak for you stated that my petition would not be allowed to stand. The same statement was made to him by a spokesman in the office of the secretary of state.

I cannot bring myself to believe that in advance of the filing of my petition the board would have any preconceived notion as to its validity. I can assure you that the petition, when filed, will have been examined by competent legal authorities before so doing.

I will appreciate it if you will inquire who in your office purports to speak for you in public statements which only embarrass all concerned.

Yours respectfully,
George M. Maypole

Moose Split Even on Games Over Weekend; Play Waukegan Next

The Loyal Order of Moose softball team divided a pair of games last weekend, nipping the Woods Confectionery of Lake Forest 14 to 13, and losing to the Woodstock Moose Club at Woodstock by a 5-3 count.

Some lusty hitting by both the Moose club and Lake Forest provided some real thrills in Friday's game, played under the high school lights.

Joe Goelitz with four hits including a double and triple, and Bill Meyers with three singles led the winners' attack. V. Bruno and Bob McLaughlin paced the losers with three bingles apiece.

A Lake Forest rally for three runs in the ninth inning gave them a 13-12 lead, but the Moose club gamely fought back in the last of the ninth to score two runs to clinch the game.

Sunday's 5-3 loss to Woodstock in a Moose League game at the opponent's park was a tough one to drop, as each team collected twelve hits, but the local club couldn't get them in the pinch. Six double plays, evenly divided between the teams, attest to the calibre of defensive play in this game. Wes Reeves and Neal Carney led the local club with a brace of hits, while Don Rossman was the big gun for Woodstock with four blows.

Art Meyers hurled good ball for Antioch, keeping the opponent's twelve hits well scattered. With the help of a couple of hits at the right time, Art could have kept the Moose club record clear for the second round of play.

The schedule this week brings the strong Lake County Plumber's entrant in the Waukegan 16 inch league, to the Antioch High school to play the Moose club on Friday night.

Sunday the Moose travel to Racine to play the Moose club of that city in a league game scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m. at Midway Park. Racine Moose is a new addition to the league, replacing Crystal Lake.

The local club hopes to have its big seige guns ready for the Racine "invasion" particularly Ed "Moose" Walters, who was the hero of the Lake Forest victory by driving the winning run home with a ninth inning double.

Ray Pregenzer Leaves Most of $200,000 Estate To One Son and Daughter

The late Raymond Pregenzer of Grass Lake left most of his $200,000 estate to his son, Louis, and his daughter, Mrs. Isabel J. Deutsch, according to the will filed in probate court this week.

Pregenzer, who died two weeks ago in Chicago left personal property estimated at $100,000 and real estate holdings at $100,000.

His son, Louis, inherits the tavern and hotel at Grass Lake, plus several subdivision lots in the lake resort area, and a daughter, Mrs. Isabel J. Deutsch, was granted all stock in the beer distributing agency, the Grass Lake and Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., homes, and notes, mortgages, and other assets of the resort owner.

A $10,000 cash bequest was made to John Vargo, a long-time employee, on the death of Mrs. Matilda Pregenzer, who was named executor of the estate.

A second son, Arthur Pregenzer, was bequeathed $5 with the explanation that he had been provided for earlier.

Unions Fight Socialism

Some time ago, the C. I. O. Utility Workers Union said that the encroachment of the Federal government into the electric power business was a "big step toward socialism." The A. F. of L. International Brotherhood of Electric Workers took a similar stand.

Now the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor has come out with a strong statement against socialization of the utilities. It pointed out that the electric industry has been a powerful influence in increasing the number of jobs and the number of union members in its state. Then it said: "It is therefore with deep concern bordering on alarm that we of labor view the steady encroachment throughout the country in this field by certain governmental agencies which threatens to destroy the private electric power industry by unfair competitive methods financed wholly with the taxpayers' money . . . We of the Federation therefore condemn the action of the Federal government in taking over private industry and the jobs of our membership by round-about methods that hold out empty promises which end only in worsened labor terms."

Here is one issue in which labor and management, regardless of their other differences and disputes, can stand solidly together. It is true, as some labor unions have said, that labor often gets a much poorer deal in government-run business than in privately-owned business—no one, not even the most powerful union, can bargain effectively with the government. More important still, socialism means the end of free labor and free unions, precisely as it means the end of free enterprise. If government takes over the machines, it must completely control and dominate the men and women who run them. The unions which are fighting socialism are to be commended for their position.

"The Soil of Competition"

In a remarkable article printed in Collier's, David Lillenthal, former head of the Tennessee Valley Authority and, after that, of the Atomic Energy Commission, strongly criticized our government's atomic policy. "Now, of all times, we need to demonstrate the vigor and adaptability of American business and industrial management," he said. "Yet we pick this time to dump our unique advantages overboard for 100 per cent government ownership, 100 per cent government financing, and increasingly centralized and governmental direction of one of the most technical undertakings in our whole history."

After discussing atomic policy, Mr. Lillenthal went on to present more generalized views. He wrote, "It takes the ideas of thousands and thousands of different people, armed with what knowledge and know-how has been previously accumulated, to make the kind of industrial progress that this country stands for. And no Government Commission, however wise and well-intentioned, no inner circle of private contractors for government, however well selected and diversified, can be counted on to develop these ideas, for they only grow well in the soil of competition—competition in spirit and in fact. This is the lesson of our whole history."

Mr. Lillenthal is especially well qualified to discuss this subject. His career in government was lengthy, and he held positions of the highest responsibility. When he speaks of the virtues of competition, and of the need for leaning more on private enterprise and less on government monopolies, he speaks as an authority. Certainly, this ever-increasing dependence on the government is one of the most menacing trends of our time.

A word to the wives...

(You can't go wrong if you clip this ad and leave it lying around for the Man of the House to read)

Jim Taylor was asking me to find out what's bothering his wife, Sally. It seems she's just all of a sudden fed up with having to plan ahead every time she wants to use hot water. She can't decide on the spur of the moment to wash her hair, or polish off a hamper of laundry ...she has to think of time to an hour or so ahead of time to be sure of having hot water. And now she's shooting sparks about the whole thing. Jim thinks she needs a vacation or something.

My husband thought I needed a vacation last year about this time, too. But I told him I'd settle for an automatic GAS water heater. It was less expensive and it's saving my disposition (and time and energy) all year 'round, instead of for just two weeks. The laundry's a snap...housecleaning is child's play...and we have all the hot water we need for just a few cents a day.

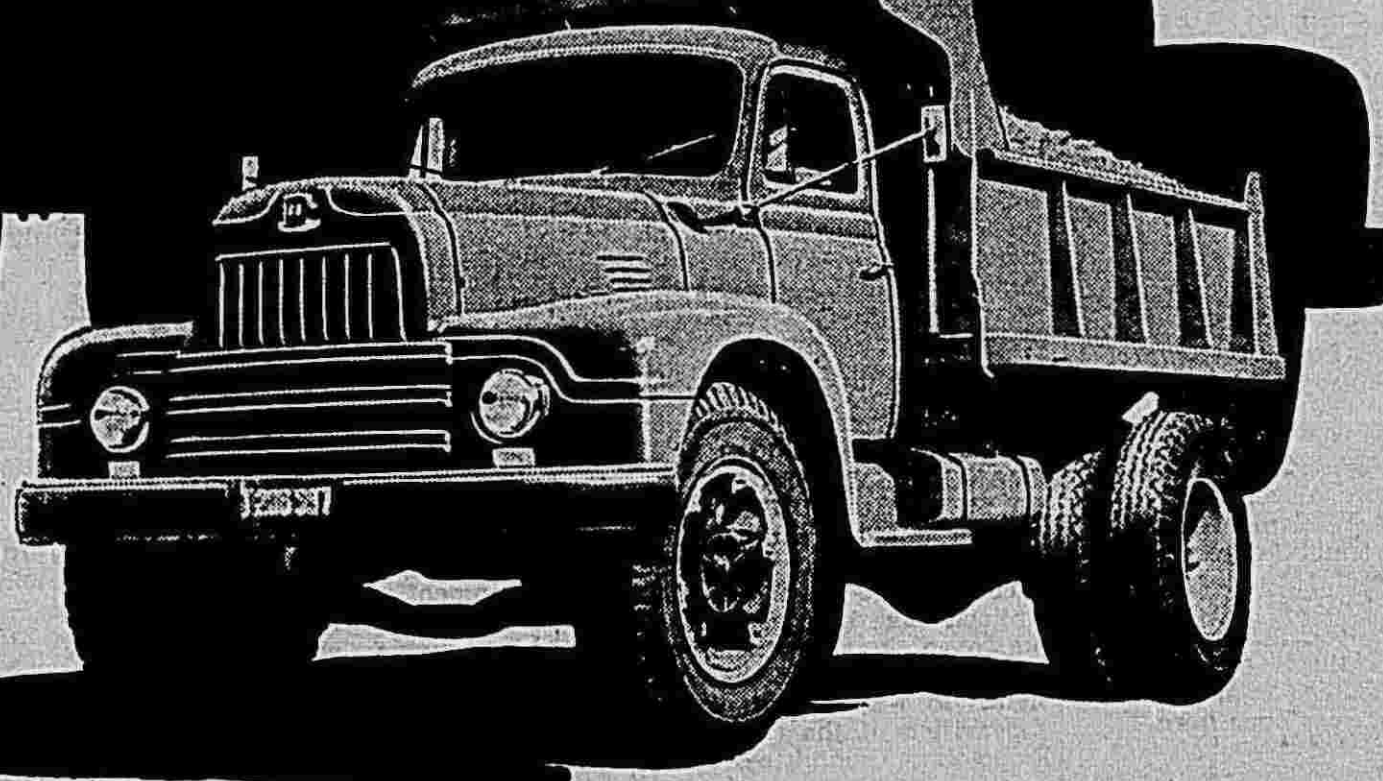

So I told Jim, and I'll tell your husband, too...just having an automatic GAS water heater is a vacation in itself!

New Hi-Way Theatre To Open

Grand opening of the Hi-Way Outdoor theater, located at Rte. 173 on Skokie highway, just south of the state line, has been set for tonight, according to James E. McGrain, manager of the new theater. The latest developments in motion picture sound and projection equipment and a new type screen designed to furnish the best in outdoor movie entertainment have been incorporated into the open air movie palace.

Knowledge gained in more than 150 years of combined movie and entertainment experience by the operators of the theater insure sound selection of programs and smooth, courteous service to the patrons.

McGrain's experience includes operation of the Barrison theater in Waukegan during the halcyon nickelodeon days, management of legitimate theater road troupes, and motion picture promotion.

Something new in outdoor movie concessions will be the hot plate lunches to be served patrons in their cars.

Well-balanced menus of tempting, inexpensive meals will make it possible for the entire family to enjoy a holiday at the movies.

gunning for matches with Lou Thesz, Gorgeous George and the Mighty Atlas.
Williams realizes that Goetz has it on him for speed, but he hopes to nullify this advantage by cracking up his foe at the start of the match. This will slow Goetz to a walk according to Williams.
No one in wrestling has been more popular than Goetz, because the latter shows such a sportsmanlike spirit. However, Billy states that he can get rough too and if Williams starts his unethical tactics, he (Goetz) will follow.

The Great Balbo, the colorful easterner of Italian descent, faces Jack Carter, of New Zealand in another all star match on the card.

The Great Balbo has speed, power and science. Carter is more of the stolid type of wrestler but a dependable and aggressive athlete who will give his rival a tough match.

Jack is on his third visit to America from New Zealand.

In the tag bout on the show Bozo Brown of the west and Bobby Nelson, of California tangle with Benito Gardenia and Tony Olivas, of Mexico. The latter duo are two of the most colorful wrestlers in the game. They meet two powerful athletes in Brown and Nelson. The latter has received offers to appear in movies, but he is concentrating on his wrestling career at present.

The Tag match is to a sixty minute time limit schedule.

First of the Fine Cars in Value

YOU can see this man has made his mark in life, and while his heart's still young.

You can tell he likes action for his money—that he knows a fine car needn't be the most expensive to give the greatest value.

Yes, such are the things you know of any man, when you note that his car is a ROADMASTER.

Follow him on his spirited way as he pilots this lively motorcar through traffic. Even the lightweights are no match for this road-steady husky—not with the 152-horsepower straight-eight Fireball engine that purrs beneath its bonnet.

Maneuver beside him at the next stop light. Then just try to get away as smoothly, swiftly and silently as Dynalloy Drive gets his ROADMASTER going—and keeps it rolling without shifting, even automatically.

But don't waste time merely envying the man in this great car! Why not emulate him?

With all its outside room, interior luxury and exterior grace—with all its front-rank prestige, rare performance and matchless ride—a ROADMASTER can be yours for less than some smaller cars cost.

In fact, even if you had a fortune to spend, you couldn't make a more fortunate buy in the fine-car field.

So we suggest you try a few minutes behind the wheel. We're confident they will convince you that ROADMASTER has everything you could ever ask for in any motorcar—although your Buick dealer asks a good bit less for ROADMASTER than you might pay for other top-line cars.

898 Steps

Birthday Exercise

WASHINGTON—Climbing the 898 steps to the top of Washington monument is a job for any man, but Frederick Miller did it just to celebrate his 70th birthday.

While three reporters and three photographers panted in their struggle to follow, Miller made the journey in 17 minutes. He complained that the photographers slowed him up or he could have made it in fifteen. He came down in 13 minutes.

After it was all over, Miller said he felt fine and thought he would try it again when he was 90. "We'll do it different then," he told the reporters, "We'll walk up backwards."

The aged Washington man revealed he had climbed the steps a week before when he had a "practice try" to see if he could make it on his birthday.

When he came down he climbed aboard his bicycle and waved goodbye to the wind photographers and reporters, and pedaled off toward home, six miles away.

Well Digger Trapped In Shaft; Rescue Efforts Are Futile

NEW YORK—While hundreds looked on and prayed, Dominick Atteo, trapped at the bottom of a 20-foot well shaft for more than 27 hours, died shortly before rescuers finally reached him.

Atteo's courage was unbelievable. But burns, pain, exhaustion and pressure of rocks and earth were more than his strong frame could stand.

The 4-year-old well digger was trapped in the 20-foot shaft he was digging beneath a Brooklyn garage when the walls gave way. He was buried to the armpits and one leg was pinioned by a large boulder.

Police emergency squads labored for 12 hours to help the husky contractor dig himself out. Then they abandoned direct rescue efforts and started digging a trench from a point 30 feet away, constantly facing the risk that the floor and roof of the garage might cave in because of the undermining.

Atteo was burned when a cigaret lowered to him by his son, John, 28, came into contact with oxygen pumped down the shaft. The son lowered the cigaret at the request of his father. Although police had forbidden smoking in the vicinity, John consented when his father kept begging for it.

More dirt and stone showered down on the pinioned man. He cried aloud at the pain from blast burns on his unprotected face.

Dr. Harold Gerson was lowered into the well and gave Atteo a hypodermic.

Just five minutes before rescuers reached him, Atteo, writhing with pain and almost out of his mind, started struggling in the vise that held him. His son warned him to remain still and "you'll get out." It was too late, however, Atteo was dead.

Mother of Seven Children Is 'College Mother of '50'

CINCINNATI, O. — Mrs. Reba Gilbert has been named the all-American college mother of 1950.

The gray-haired Mrs. Gilbert, who performs the usual tasks of a farm wife and also drives back and forth to Cincinnati to attend classes, was graduated this spring with a certificate in Journalism.

But that's not all. Five of her seven children also received college degrees this spring.

Major Raymond A. Gilbert, her oldest son, received a bachelor of science degree at Ohio State, John, the youngest son, received a bachelor of science degree from Ohio University; another son, Charles, received a master of arts degree at Otterbein college; and a daughter, Janet, received a bachelor of education degree at the same school.

The college mother of 1950 drove 56 miles a day to attend classes twice a week. The past semester she drove 4,500 miles. Next fall she plans to be back to continue her work toward a degree.

In addition to her studies, she gardens and cans 500 cans of vegetables and fruit each year.

Her husband, Arthur M. Gilbert, is an electrical engineer. He and Mrs. Gilbert live on a 54-acre farm.

Men's Two-Pants Suits Reported Coming Back

NEW YORK. — The two-pants suit, a wartime casualty, is staging a comeback.

Max Udell Sons & company, clothing manufacturer, discovered that in a survey.

A questionnaire answered by 203 retailers around the country disclosed that two-pants suits are growing rapidly in popularity.

An estimated 34 per cent of retailers are going to get their suits with two pants. And "some areas, such as Detroit and Chicago, plan to buy all of their suits with two trousers," the survey said.

Sunshine State

California takes petroleum out of the ground, salt out of the sea, and vitamins out of fish liver through a chemical industry that makes some 60 different mineral products. From Ione in Amador county, has recently come a hard, waxlike hydrocarbon which may replace the Car-nauba used in the manufacture of shoe polish and carbon paper. Californians even collect seaweed and squeeze from it medicines and livestock fodder.

French-Toasted Sandwiches
Meat, cheese, and peanut butter sandwiches are tasty French-toasted. Dip but don't soak sandwiches in an egg-milk mixture—one egg beaten with two tablespoons of milk is enough for four sandwiches. Brown slowly on both sides in a little hot fat.

Darkroom
Film clips and tongs for camera fans' darkroom use are now made of stainless steel, which is not affected by chemicals used to develop film.

Oven Canning
Oven canning is dangerous. Never use this method.

Uncle Sam Says

Many of you are sleeping soundly these nights, secure in the knowledge that your home is paid for, that there's an education fund ready to draw upon for that son or daughter ready for college. It doesn't take a financial wizard to figure out that the regular purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds is a safe, profitable and sure way of saving, one of the best ever invented. Today is the time to join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank. That spells financial security.

PREPARED BY AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR ANIMAL HEALTH

BAD WATER BRINGS ANIMAL DISEASES

It has been known for centuries that a bad water supply may spread human diseases and deaths. It is not so generally known that costly livestock losses can also occur.

Water holes can spread disease.

where pure water is not available at all times.

Old water tanks may harbor the living larvae of many varieties of parasites, or even disease-producing bacteria. Stale ponds or freshwater bayous may be incubators for parasites and virulent germs.

Windblown green scum or algae on lakes can cause heavy deaths in all species of farm animals. Wells that are open to escape from surface miles are grave sources of danger. Each year valuable animals are lost, also, after drinking from streams contaminated by industrial wastes. Rivers and creeks also may carry disease germs and viruses from farms upstream. Veterinarians have traced hog cholera outbreaks to just such situations.

Strange as it may seem, actual death of animals by thirst is not too uncommon. Even a short supply of water may cause illness or poor production.

While ice cold water may not actually cause disease, it cuts down on livestock profits because animals will not drink enough. The livestock owner should not wait until fully water supplies cause losses. He should survey the situation on his farm and take the necessary preventive measures before losses occur.

James Whitcomb Riley
The Hoosier poet, James Whitcomb Riley, got his first experience writing for the public as an apprentice to a traveling "doctor" who sold patent medicines. According to The Book House for Children, it was Riley's business "to write catchy songs and act them out to draw a crowd around the 'doctor' while he sold his wares."

The Gallatin Plan
In 1808 Albert Gallatin, secretary of the treasury, formulated a comprehensive plan in which he recommended the construction of a continuous turnpike to provide for travel from Massachusetts to North Carolina and another from Maine to Georgia, which would unite the major seaports along the Atlantic coast. He also recommended roads across the Alleghenies between the Atlantic ocean and the great western rivers. The plan was never adopted because of sectional differences and on account of its alleged unconstitutionality.

Crandall Leads V. F. W. to Victory over Team from Sturtevant, Sunday

Led by the slugging of Jack Crandall the Antioch V. F. W. walloped Sturtevant Sunday by a 13-6 count. Crandall enjoyed a perfect day at the plate collecting five singles in as many tries. In addition, he scored two runs and drove three others across the platter.

Antioch took an early 6-1 lead in the contest but the home team succeeded in narrowing the margin to one run before the visitors led the game with a six run barrage in the seventh inning.

Bob Risch and Ed Olsen shared the pitching chores for Antioch. Risch started and allowed seven hits and five runs in the six innings that he toiled. He walked but two men and struck out five in chalking up his first league win. Olsen worked the last three innings yielding four hits, one run and striking out four batters.

Sturtevant also employed two hurlers. Otawaska started and pitched until the seventh when he was knocked from the box. Brockman relieved and did a very fine job. He stifled Antioch's uprising and was nipped for only two hits and one run in the remaining innings.

In the offensive department Crandall had ample help from Ed Palenski, Ray Wells and Glenn Fox, all of whom garnered two safeties. Palenski had Antioch's longest clout of the day, a long triple over the centerfielders head. Wells collected the Vets other extra base blow, a double down the right field line.

Mau led Sturtevant's futile attack with two doubles and a single. Leskovic contributed the longest poke of the day, a line drive four to left center.

Antioch opened the scoring in the second inning. Crandall lined a single to right and promptly stole second base. Fox hit a slow roller which dribbled between the first baseman's legs. Crandall scoring. Reckers walked, Ray Scott hit a roller to the pitcher who threw to third in an attempt to force Fox. All runners were safe when the ball got away from Rosenbaum. Risch hit a slow bopper to Rosenbaum who threw wildly to the plate. Fox and Reckers both scoring and Scott taking third. Haviland struck out but Scott scored while Wells was going out first base unassisted to make the score 4-0.

Sturtevant came back with one run in its half of the second as Thomas bunted safely and then stole second. He continued to third on Schneider's high throw to second and scored on Rummage's fly to Crandall. Crandall started off the third stanza with another single to right and took second on a wild pitch. Fox rolled to Miller who fumbled the ball, Crandall taking third from where he scored on Scott's squeeze bunt.

Antioch generated another tally in the fourth when Wells doubled and rode home on Crandall's third successive single.

Sturtevant closed the gap to 6-5 with two runs in the fifth and two more in the sixth. The V. F. W., however, broke loose for six runs in the seventh, which meant the game. Scott led off with a walk, Risch rolled to Rosenbaum and both runners were safe when he threw wildly to second. Haviland came through with a single to right to drive in Scott. Wells beat out a bunt to fill the bases. Palenski singled through the box, Risch and Haviland scoring. When the throw to third escaped Rosenbaum, Wells scored and Palenski took third. Schneider walked. Crandall beat out a bunt for his fifth straight hit, Palenski scoring and when Otawaska threw wildly to first, Schneider also scored, to make to count 12-5. Brockman then relieved Otawaska and put out the fire without further trouble.

Sturtevant picked up their last run in the eighth on a pair of singles and a walk.

Antioch scored its last tally on Palenski's long triple and Ray Bushing's line single to left to make the final score 13-6.

Next Sunday Antioch will play host to Wilmet. This will be the V. F. W.'s last home league appearance. These two old rivals have not met this year since their first scheduled encounter was rained out. Wilmet is at present riding in second spot in the league standings. Antioch is in a fourth place tie with Silver Lake, who has upset both Wilmet and Burlington in the past two weeks. An exciting game is anticipated and everyone is invited to come to the High school diamond at 2:30 p. m. C. D. T. to help the V. F. W.'s last home league appearance. These two old rivals have not straight triumph.
